NO PORTIA IS WANTED BY THE LAWYERS OF ENGLAND

LONDON, Jan. 18.—Women will not be permitted to practise law in England if the lawyers can prevent it.

At a meeting to-day of the General Council of the Bar, over which Attorney General Sir F. E. Smith presided, a resolution asking the General Council to "consider a report upon the desirability of making provision for the admission of duly qualified women to the profession" was overwhelmingly defeated.

See what I found in this mornings paper! Thought it would interest you, and therefore mailed it. What do you think of it?
